

COSMOPOLITAN

Do you love your lip gloss? Obsessed with tinted moisturiser? Have a signature scent that everyone comments on? Then we need you and your expertise!
If you're a beauty addict we want to know what products you've bought, how you use them and why you love them?

Welcome to the Australian Beauty Awards. We've assembled the most impressive group of experts in the country – from all your favourite magazines and blogs – and we need you to help us judge the best beauty products for 2009. No category will be left untested with comprehensive coverage of the Hair, Body, Skin, Make-up and Fragrance markets.

Our picks and your favourites will combine to make a definitive list of winners which will appear in the August issue of madison, Harpers BAZAAR, The Australian Women's Weekly and Cosmopolitan.

And to make voting a little bit more fun, we've put together amazing daily prizes – it's easy, just go to beautyawards.com.au. Happy testing!
