Project Runway Australia finalists kicked up their heels at a party thrown by Rosemount

The fashion pack were out in suitably gorgeous force for the Project Runway Australia Diamond In You Party – and the atmosphere was electric. So why the off-the-scales excitement? It was announced that Project Runway Australia contestant Anthony Capon will have one of his designs immortalised on a chic limited-edition Rosemount bottle, to be unveiled in the lead up to Rosemount Australian Fashion Week in May.

It's a non-stop fashion whirlwind for Rosemount. As well as sponsoring Project Runway Australia, Rosemount also supports Rosemount Australian Fashion Week, Rosemount Sydney Fashion Festival and a host of stylish events throughout the year. (Tip: we're excited about the Rosemount mobile makeovers!)
