A SEASIDE SOIREE

IT WAS a tough week at Grazia HQ. "The Ed" spent Tuesday afternoon talking fashion and flower arranging at Sydney's Pier Restaurant at the launch of HTC's new mobile phone, the Incredible S.

Ever the innovator, HTC invited cute and quirky Romance Was Born duo Luke Sales and Anna Plunkett to create the table setting, which included deer vases and goldfish bowls (they were by the sea, after all).

DJ/ksubi co-founder Dan Single provided the music while WAG Nation star Terry Biviano and The Ed, Kellie Hush, hosted the event.

For those not required back at the office, the phone's compass function came in handy to find the next watering hole...
