

out to lunch

Shorts are the hottest thing this summer and high waists are the must-have style. Whether you're lunching at a winery or favourite restaurant finding the right leg length is paramount for a tasteful look. Mix with wedges for a sophisticated feel or team with flats for a more casual approach. Floaty tops, in light fabrics that allow you to remain cool, are always a winner. Beads and chunky necklaces provide a point of interest in an otherwise simple outfit.
